

Miranda Pennington

Miranda Pennington is a Partner at Metropolis Green, a renewable energy and sustainability consultancy. Metropolis Green provides expert and strategic planning advice on sustainable buildings and renewable energy technologies. Miranda is engaged in ensuring her clients can achieve planning permission through designing sustainable developments that are in-line with government policy. Her work therefore covers a range of topic areas including energy efficiency, low and zero carbon technologies, water efficiency, sustainable urban drainage and health and wellbeing within developments.